

Switzerland

We celebrate this Holy Mass in covenant with Switzerland, one of the first countries where the covenant of love was lived shortly after Schoenstatt's founding. Father Kentenich worked very much in this country and he crowned the Most Holy Virgin in a simple wayside shrine as "Queen of the people and Queen of the Universe", and he where he spoke about the "Covenant of Love with all the people". Switzerland is the first country – as far as we know – where a Shrine is remembered, Saturday after Saturday, with a poster similar to the one in the Original Shrine, our Holy Mass toward 2014.

Intentions

For the Schoenstatt Family in Switzerland, for its apostolic projects and for all the people who go on pilgrimage to the Shrines of Switzerland

For the pilgrimage road of our international Family toward the jubilee of the covenant of love and for each step of this pilgrimage

For the journey of Team 2014 with the leaders of the covenant culture tents (¿) and for all the tasks and challenge on the road toward 2014

For Father José María García, that he may receive strength and many blessings through the covenant of love and through the prayers of many people from the entire world

For the beginning of the Academy of Family Pedagogy in Spain, this weekend, for the Sion Celebration in Argentina and for all the journeys and pilgrimages to our Shrines

For the victims of the train crash in Buenos Aires, for all the persons who suffer from violence, terrorism, and dictatorships

For all those who sent their petitions, prayers, gratitude and commitment to the Original shrine this week through schoenstatt.org from Argentina, France, Germany, Spain, Brazil, Paraguay, Chile, Peru, Ecuador, United States, and Mexico.
