Reading

from Ephesians 4,3-6

Italian and German

Make every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.

11. Gloria Patri et Filio * et Spiritui Sancto
12. Sicut erat in principio et nunc et semper * et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Petitions

The petitions are addressed in a number of languages to Jesus Christ, the Lord of his Church, who has promised us the Holy Spirit. After each petition, the person who has presented the petition places incense in the bowl before our Lady's picture.

Lord Jesus Christ, in these days you have brought us together from all over the world into the heart of the Church. Preserve our joy in the spiritual riches of God's people, and strengthen the Church in worldwide solidarity.

Lord Jesus Christ, you carried out your promise and did not leave your disciples behind as orphans. We too know that you have accepted us again and enriched us with your Spirit. Preserve in us the joy that we are called and are Christians.

Lord Jesus Christ, here in Belmonte we are following in the footsteps of our father and founder. Together with him we want to place ourselves at the disposal of our Holy Father as the International Schoenstatt Family, and become a blessing to the Church.

Lord Jesus Christ, we thank you for letting us meet with so many communities that are the fruit of a breakthrough of new life in the Church. Let our Holy Father's hopes be fulfilled, and through the new ecclesial communities give the Church and world new forces of evangelization.

Lord Jesus Christ, here in Belmonte we have begun to carry out our promise to our father. Bring about worldwide unity among us, and complete the work you have started.

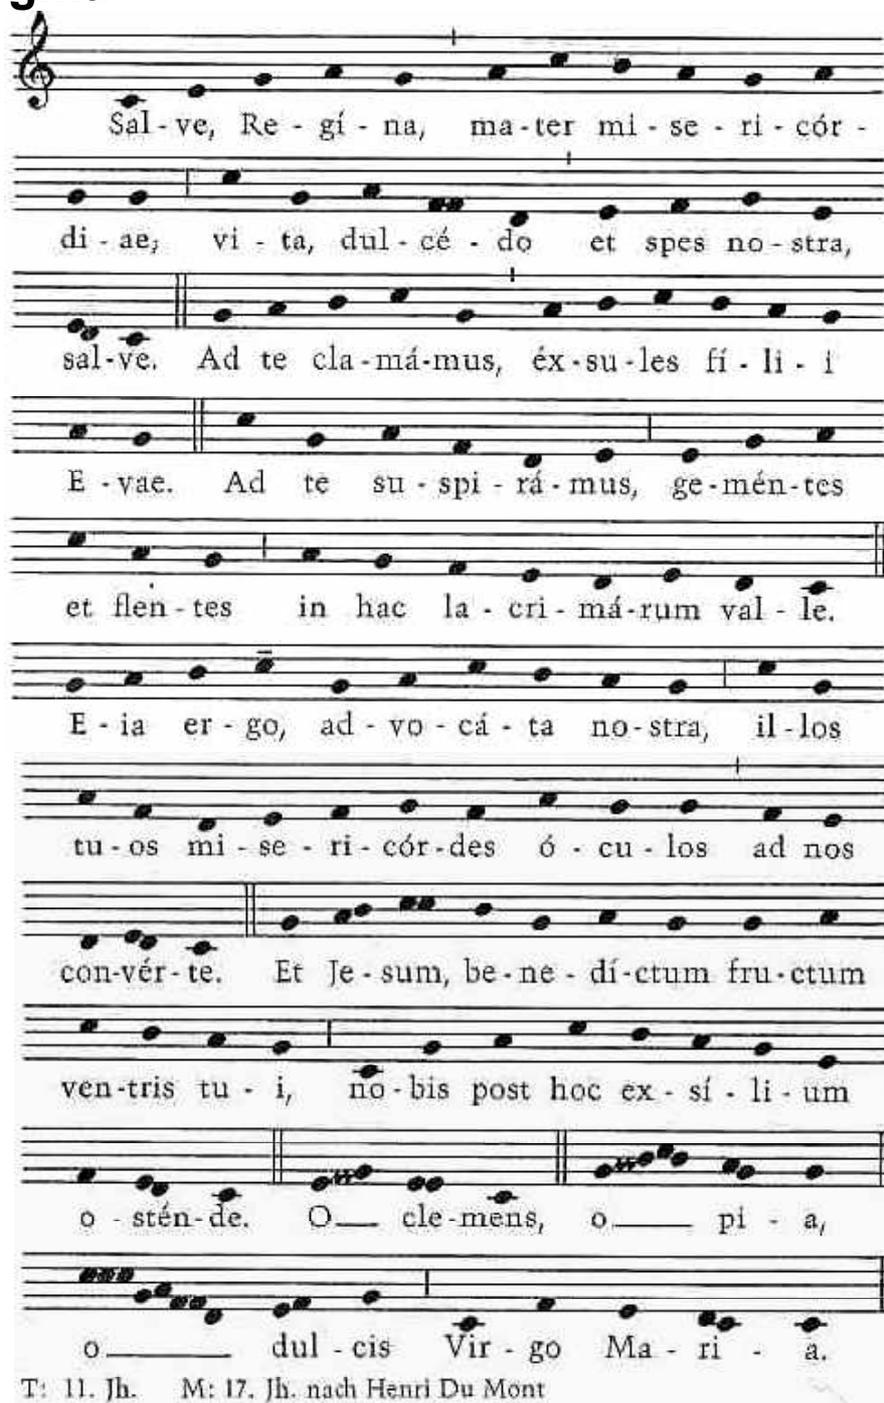

Let us sum up all our petitions in the prayer our Lord has taught us. We will sing it in the language of the Church:

All: Pater noster, qui es in caelis,
sanctificetur nomen tuum,
adveniat regnum tuum,
fiat voluntas tua sicut in caelo et in terra.
Panem nostrum quotidianum da nobis hodie.
Et dimitte nobis debita nostra,
sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris
et ne nos inducas in tentationem, sed libera nos a malo.

Almighty God, through the mystery of this day sanctify your Church in all peoples and nations. Fill the whole world with the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. What your love brought about at the beginning of the Church, bring about again today in the hearts of all who believe in you. We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit for all eternity. Amen.

Celebrant: At the end of this service we will all be given a white stone with the Belmont logo. May this stone always remind us of the days of Pentecost in Rome and our common shrine at Belmonte. Go in joy and peace.

All: Thanks be to God, the Lord
